Europe against Racism - Guidance to a better understanding

Two-day seminar for NGO representatives in the field of anti-racism work focussing on EU measures

25 to 28 August 2024

The two-day seminar addresses the needs and experiences of NGO representatives in the field of anti-racism work from Germany and other EU countries and specifically integrates the relevant EU measures. It offers a platform for the in-depth exchange of experiences, the discussion of advanced action strategies and the development of partnerships for different target groups. The targeted networking and cooperation of participants at EU level creates synergies and lays the foundation for future joint projects and initiatives.

Target group

NGO representatives from Germany, Croatia, Austria, and other EU countries who are active in the field of anti-racism work

Participants apply with a concrete idea for a project on the topic; three of these are to be developed into a draft proposal in the project

Objectives:

- Deepening the understanding of anti-Semitism and racism in a European context
- Exchange of experience and networking between experienced NGO representatives from different countries
- Reflection on many years of work and future challenges in the field of anti-racism at EU level
- Discussion and further development of advanced action strategies and best practices; development of an educational concept for the realisation of a project idea

Co-funded by the European Union
